James Casey of, Woodburn, was in attendance at the funeral services of Rev. J. S. White today.

Vance, the 10-year-old son of George W. Clymer, the court house gardener, had the forefinger of his left hand very painfully lacerated Wednesday afternoon by reason of having it caught in a lawn-mowing machine he was operating. The injured finger will likely be saved.

A party of young men consisting of C. M. Lockwood, Webster Kincaid, Ernest King, Albie Kuykendall, Elmer Paine, Hewie Williamson, came down from Eugene yesterday on their wheels. They started about 4 o'clock a. m. and arrived at 3 p. m. They came by way of Corvallis and Independence, taking in the Agricultural college at the former place.

Judge Boise made following entries today at his session of court: Fred Dose vs. Bank of Woodburn, et al, equity, demurrer to complaint sustained; leave granted to file amended

NEW DEAL FOR SALE.

Announcement Extraordinary by a Leading Firm.

On August 1, Boren & Hamilton will move their stock of furniture, carpets, wall paper etc., from their present stand to the building formerly occupied by the Young Men's Christian Association. They will occupy both floors of the new location, which will give them much greater floor space and better light, things imperatively demanded by their increasing business. But any one who has ever had occasion to gather up his household goods and move, will understand that this firm has a Herculean task before it in transferring the stock from the old store to the new. Besides the trouble and expense, there is the danger of loss through breakage, marring of finish etc. Therefore Boren & Hamilton have determined to make substantial reductions in prices of all their goods, and offer special inducements to buyers, and out their stock down as small as possible before moving. Any one acquainted with these popular young gentlemen will know that "this is no dream," but a strictly business proposition, and that the reductions in price will be material and bona fide.

Battery B.
Governor W. P. Lord has named W. P. Riley, of Portland, to be the captain of Battery B, Oregon Artillery Volunteers that will be organized and mustered into service at this point some time next week. J. C. Rutledge, of this city, will be first lieutenant and Allen Case, of Baker City, has been appointed second lieutenant. One half of the battery will be formed of men from Eastern Oregon, the remainder coming from Salem and vicinity. Thirteen enlisted with Lieut. J. C. Rutledge at the state house Wednesday, and many others enrolled. Mr. Rutledge, the local recruiting officer, is anxious to have fifty or sixty more volunteers that an allowance of several men may be made for failure to pass the medical examination, and there still be a sufficient number to form a full company.

All for the Soldier Boys.
A joint meeting of the Capital and Emergency Corps was held at Channing hall Wednesday afternoon and the meeting was productive of much good work. Articles that will contribute the health and comfort of the soldier were prepared for the volunteers. A company of ladies met at the residence of Z. F. Moody yesterday afternoon and prepared a number of "housewives" for the boys. The executive board of the Capital Emergency Corps will hold a meeting at the residence of Mrs. Z. F. Moody at 2 p. m. Friday.

Capital Corps, during the past few days has received several hundred pounds of choice cherries for drying purposes, the contributors being Mrs. H. Stapleton, Dr. S. R. Jessup, Mrs. P. H. Raymond, Eugene Breyman and T. F. Royal. The ladies are thankful to Rocky Hodgekin, Clyde Johnson and George Hatch for their service in picking the fruit.

Sedgewick Corps last week shipped sixty-five pounds of fruit jam and marmalade to the boys at Manila, through the Red Cross society of San Francisco. The Corps has an additional shipment of about 60 pounds of the same preparations that will be forwarded in a few days.

Always Come Back.
